

Lunch available for students at 26 school sites beginning March 16

The schools below will serve lunch for all SPS students from 11AM-1PM Monday through Friday for the duration of the school closure. Grab and go meals are available for students, but students can not stay at the school to eat them because of “social distancing” guidance from state and local health agencies. Details about lunch location provided below, if you need accessibility support, staff are available to provide access to another entrance or bring the food outside.

Below are student meal distribution sites and specific directions on where to pick up at each Southend school.

Aki Kurose Middle School (3929 South Graham Street)
