1st Annual Black & Brown Male Summit

Serving Young Men of Color

This is a free event designed to empower our Black & Brown young men to excel in academics. You will learn:

- Critique social structures that inhibit Black/Brown young men from being successful in Education
- Highlight the achievements in spite of the obstacles/barriers that they face
- Contextualize their self identity socially, culturally, historically, and politically by giving the young men a sense of self and value of self

Highlights
